SUMMER/FALL 2024

ABOUT US

Splinter Art and Community Fund, our 501c3 non-profit (DBA Splinter Collective, or Splinter) is a horizontally led organization that is 100% comprised of Black, Indigenous and people of the global majority, and LGBTQ+people.

Splinter Collective curates and provides space for unique Arts Programming that centers the enjoyment and experiences of queer people, Black and Indigenous people, and people of the global majority.

Our arts programming facilitates queer, cross-class, cross-race community building by creating an intentionally queer, joyous, safe, and affordable space. All Splinter Collective events are sliding scale and no one is ever turned away for lack of funds.

VISION

Splinter Collective works towards a world of decolonial community care, healing, and celebration across diversity while advocating for human rights, education, and collectivized land and resources.

We believe that change happens through education, modeling, and building authentic relationships of trust across division.

MISSION

Our mission is to provide an accessible, and equitable community space for intertwined liberatory art practices and social justice organizing. We focus on community events, art curation, housing justice, and providing mutual aid to the surrounding community, particularly our unsheltered neighbors.

SPLINTER COLLECTIVE

PROGRAMMING

As an art and social justice organization, Splinter is deeply committed to anti-racism, decolonization, community partnership, mutual aid, anti-capitalism, housing justice, disability justice, addressing climate change, anti-gentrification, eviction defense and promotion of the arts.

We center the voices and artistic visions of marginalized communities and art geared towards social change. We are thrilled to include and support in particular LGBTQIA+ artists, women artists, disabled artists, BIPOC artists, border artists, our unsheltered neighbors, and other community groups.
